

HOME NEWS.

State Circuit Court has adjourned for the term.

Chief Moses has arrived safely in Washington.

The Elyngs engagement at New Market has proved an immense success thus far.

The April term of the United States court opened on Monday with about thirty cases on the docket.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, a well stands pre-eminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

A bargain in second-hand sewing machines is offered at 149 Front street. Prices, from $5 to $15, and all kinds warranted.

A man named James Flynn was brought down from the Dalles on Saturday by Sheriff Croson and placed in the insane asylum.

Officer Hudson left this city for Olympia yesterday to bring over the men Bernard and Fairchild, charged with the Hager murder.

There were no Bethel services in this port last Sunday, Chaplain Stubbs having gone to labor among the "men of the sea" in the Sound ports.

An anti-Chinese meeting was held in the plaza on Sunday afternoon. Agitation on the question of Chinese labor seems to be on the increase.

Sunday-school picnics are beginning to be discussed. The weather will probably be too uncertain to make definite plans for them for several weeks yet.

Kot-ko-wot, the Indian charged with the murder of Brown at Sitka in January, was, upon trial, found guilty. The Indian arrested with him was acquitted.

The "Hydra sisters," a colored minstrel troupe, will open at New Market Theater on the 21st inst. They will sing at Astoria before coming to this city.

Ladies can have their own hair undyed in a reliable manner, also faded hair colored equal to new, at Mrs. W. A. Hair store, 64 Morrison street, Portland.

Rev. J. A. Crozan delivered a sermon to women last Sunday evening on "Dress," a subject in which they are popularly supposed to be greatly interested.

The National Employment Bureau is at the cottage, 107 Morrison street, opposite the post office. Mrs. Eli Jones superintends the ladies' department. J. Russell Jones, manager.

The corner of Stark and First streets is rapidly being cleared and leveled to accommodate the massive brick structure that is to be erected thereon the coming season.

Mrs. Lot Livermore, of Pendleton, arrived in this city on Monday, coming as a witness in the case of the United States vs. the two Sitka murderers, Kot-ko-wot and Okh-ho-not.

Five cars have been chartered for the Old Fellows' excursion from Salem to this city on the 26th inst. The fare has been fixed at $2.50 the round trip, the train leaving Salem at seven o'clock A. M.

It is said that Miss Elyngs has taken a great fancy to Miss Maude, daughter of Joaquin and Minnie Myrtle Miller, and has determined if the young lady has dramatic talent to advance her in her profession.

A Ferrara, First street, keeps the finest and best assortment of teas in the city. He procures them direct from Japan, and warrants them to be what they are represented. We have sampled them, and add our testimony in their favor.

Having obtained the process of taking pictures with lightning rapidity (by Lambert's patent), Joseph Buellet is now prepared to do work better than heretofore, and assures the public that none but the best work shall leave his gallery.

His Honor, Judge Deady, delivered the fifth lecture in the Philomathean course at Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening, his subject "Towns and Cities." The lecture, as was expected, was a credit to the speaker and the society, and a pleasure to the audience.

A "Dickens party" will be given by members of the Philomathean society at Turn Hall, on Friday evening the 18th inst., the proceeds to be applied toward furnishing the new church. About one hundred of the principal characters in "Dickens" will be represented in costume. Admission, $1.

At New Market Theater on this (Thursday) evening, "Love's Sacrifice," Friday evening, "Antony and Cleopatra," Saturday evening, "Macbeth." Matinee on Saturday afternoon. On Friday evening Miss Elyngs takes a benefit and Saturday evening closes her present engagement in this city.

Comstock & Pfluger have just received an elegant stock of spring goods, Dress goods, slawts, gloves, parasols, in short, everything necessary to make a lady comfortable and stylish, is to be found at their establishment, Second street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Their goods are of the best quality, and prices moderate.

The San Francisco Cliff says: "Having joined the temperance ranks, and lectured most successfully in Oakland on that subject, Calvin B. McDonald is about to leave for Oregon, where he has engaged to lecture against the use of intoxicating liquors, and will be in conjunction with Hon. W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T. of that State.

The floral decorations at Trinity church on Sunday were exquisite. Upon the atmosphere, redolent with their subtle incense, grand and solemn music pealed and earnest exhortation rose such as could not fail to lift the aspirations heavenward. The immense edifice was thronged with worshippers and spectators both morning and evening.

A Chinaman was assaulted with mud and stones by some youthful hoodlums on Mill and Sixth streets on Thursday, as he was carrying home linen from his laundry. He retaliated by inflicting, with a knife, several severe gashes, painful but not dangerous, on one of his persecutors. He was arrested and after examination was released on $200 bonds for his appearance when wanted.

Money & Valentine show a stock of millinery goods that is at once elegant and complete. When artistically arranged by the deft fingers of their tasteful milliner, their hats and bonnets are perfect marvels of beauty. In the history line, also, their stock is immense, and contains all grades, shades, and colors. Their prices are extremely low. Remember the place, First street, between Yamhill and Taylor.

Mrs. J. Stephenson, dealer in fashionable millinery and fancy goods, 247 First street, between Main and Madison, provides over a complete bower of flowers, feathers, and gauzes. These Miss Fulton, an experienced and tasteful milliner just from San Francisco, designs so elegantly that "loves of hats" is exhibited. Mrs. S. purchases mainly in New York and Chicago, hence is prepared to sell low. She has also a fine line of extra handkerchiefs, pins, bracelets, lockets, etc., which are offered lower than ever before in this city. Call and see the novelties shown.

Our testimonials show that long-standing cases of scurvy, bad legs, etc., have been cured by eight or ten bottles of Frander's Oregon Blood Purifier.

NEW THIS WEEK.

WHAT IS IT?
Why, of course it is the WILSON that has achieved such great success for being the best family sewing Machine sold in Oregon; that took the gold medal over the White and Singer. It is not the Wheeler and Wilson No. 3, but the New Wilson No. 1, and for $21 less than the old "mangled" companies' machines, gives better satisfaction, is more durable, and warranted for five years.

DAVID AND ANNA MATSON.
By Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway,
Editor "New Northwest," Portland, Oregon,

WITH BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, AND ELEGANTLY BOUND

A new epic, from a vigorous and skillful pen, on a subject which occupies a large place in the social divisions of the day. The subject is taken from Mr. Whittier's short narrative of "David Matson," with which the reader is probably familiar. David Matson, a Maritime sailor was captured by the Algerines (during one of his voyages) and sold into slavery. After many years he obtained release and was on his way to the home of his boyhood, when he fell in with his old employer, who informed him that his wife, believing him dead, had remarried, and, stung by his trouble, he surrounded all claims as husband and father to the man who had stepped into his place, and departed. Mrs. Duniway has found a theme in this story with which her heart beats in warmest sympathy, and her lines flow on in the smooth cadence of the finest poet. She pictures the gentle, tender, trusting Anna and the wily, evil, cunning Poltish in vivid colors, and how years of poverty and longing, and the cries of the hungry boys, compelled poor Anna to yield to Poltish's importunity.

"Then, rejoice,
My poor, unmailed dove," said he,
"And look henceforth for love to me."
A little further on he said:
"Become my wife and you shall be Made happy through prosperity."

While, if she persists in declining his advances, will force, he threatens to abandon her to starvation and cold. And this Poltish was a "deacon."

In exhortations deep and loud,
The wanderings of David, his captivity, release, hapless interior with Poltish, discovery of Anna's second widowhood, and his and going back to Algeria, are all told so pathetically that our feelings are deeply enlisted. No one
